

Orientation for Internship Program

April 6, 2015

Internship Program Committee ,
Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies
(GSGES),
Chiho OCHIAI

Contents

- Outline
- Time Schedule
- Practical Examples by Senior Students
- Waiving the internship program participation requirement

Contacting Persons

- Prof. Satoshi HOSHINO (Chairman)
- Prof. Shaw RAJIB
- Assoc. Prof. Izuru SAIZEN
- Assist. Prof. Takashi FUJIMORI
- Assist. Prof. Yosuke SAKAMOTO
- Assist. Prof. Chiho OCHIAI

Objectives of Internship Program

- ❑ To foster practical expertise, technical skills and environmental management skills through a combination of on-site experience and classes.
- ❑ To broaden practical and technical senses related to global environmental issues.
- ❑ To extract and study the issues related to the global/local environment through practical experience, and search for methods to resolve them.

GSGES Internship Program (1)

- Compulsory subject in Environmental Management Course (Master's / Doctoral)

- 10 credits are counted.
 - for Master's course student
 - 8 credits for implementation of interns
 - 2 credits for attendance at Internship program debriefing
 - for Doctoral course student
 - 10 credits for implementation of interns (you have to report your intern)

GSGES Internship Program (2)

□ Period

- For master's course students (2 options)
 - 1) Long-term internship: 3 to 5 months or
 - 2) Short-term internship:
 - at least 1 month
 - + Preliminary study for master's thesis
- For doctoral course students,
 - at least 5 months

Evaluation of Grades

- ❑ Done by your supervisor and sub-supervisor
- ❑ Considering the evaluation by organization/institution
- ❑ Requirements
 - Submission of complete set of reports (Keep all the documents/reports in the guidebook or website)
The report sets are slightly different in long/short-term internship program.
 - Interview
 - Presentation

Institution / Organization (1)

- GSGES have made arrangements with more than 150 domestic and international organizations to serve as hosts for the internship program.

- Private Sector
- Public office
- Overseas institution, university
- NGO/NPO, etc.

Only for short-term internship program,

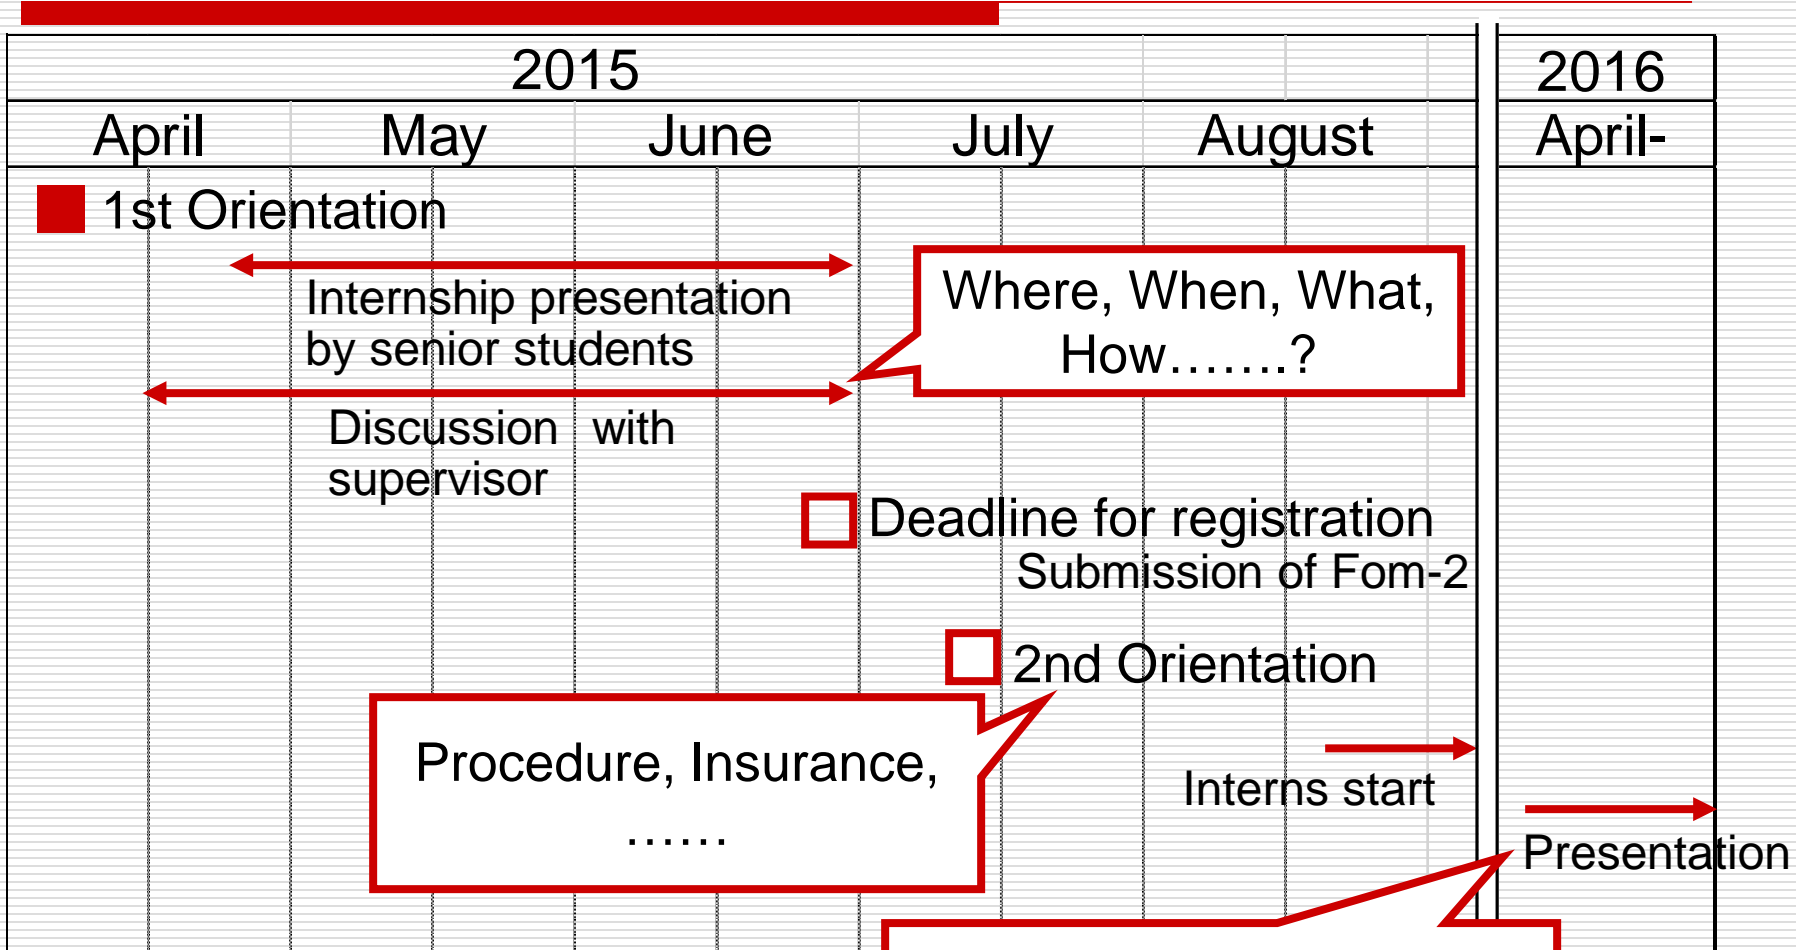

- Labs in other university in Japan

You can see the details of institutions / organizations at our website.
(Sorry, Japanese only)

Institution / Organization (2)

- ❑ Internship programs organized by outside institutions / organizations (e.g. JICA) can be transferred, if they meet our requirements mainly in terms of the period and subject.
- ❑ It is possible to make new arrangements.

Time Schedule

Presentation is required for every student.

Practical Examples by Senior Students

- List of organizations
 - See Guidebook
 - Keep visiting the GSGES website
 - Latest information
 - <http://www.ges.kyoto-u.ac.jp/intern/index.html>

- Internship Presentation Meeting
 - April 24, May 8, May 15, May 22, May 29, Early December (13:30 – around 17:00)
 - M2 , D students reports his/her internship activities.
 - Good opportunities to communicate with senior students
 - You have to join this meeting series.
 - Presentation will be evaluated for grades by Professors.

Transfer of Work Experience to the Internship Program

- The internship study committee may approve your working experience as completing the internship program, if the experiences can meet the following our requirements;
 - The work experience should be related to environmental management
 - The following terms of work experiences are required;
For long-term internship: at least 5 years experiences
For short-term internship: at least 2 years experiences
 - The application for the transfer is subjected to the review by committee members (Presentation and Interview).

- Applicants must submit the application form (Form-17) and a curriculum vitae (free format) to the administration office after the discussion with their academic supervisor (See the guideline).

Thank you for your attention.