

A SPECIAL LRP LECTURE

Deaths in Disasters: A Case for Systems Failure

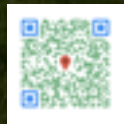

delivered by Dr. Nibedita S Ray-Bennett,
School of Management/ Civil Safety and Security Unit,
University of Leicester, UK

DATE: 12 July 2016, from 10:30

VENUE: Meeting room on the 2nd floor, Research building No. 14 (Red block build.), GSGES, Kyoto Univ.

contact: Narumasa Tsutsumida (Dr.), Lab. of Regional Planning, GSGES.
naru@kais.kyoto-u.ac.jp

Location

This research regarding disaster adaptation presents the theoretical frameworks of 'systems failure' and 'systems alignment' to explain why deaths occur in 'natural' disasters and how deaths can be reduced.